EXPLANATORY NOTE

One of the well-known traits of Filipinos is that we are known to be loving and respectful to our elders. It is a norm for us to always give priority and in any way assist our elders as a sign of our respect to them.

According to the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA), In the Philippines, as of 2020, senior citizens make up 8.5 percent of our population or around the number of 9.22 million people. Comparing it from the 2015 study conducted by PSA, there were only 7.5 percent or 7.53 million senior citizens recorded in the Philippines<sup>1</sup>.

Over the years, there have been quite a number of laws enacted to protect and give aid to our senior citizens. Some of which is with regard to retirement benefits, their pensions, free and discounted medical goods and services and even discounts on other commodities.

To further give aid and prioritize our senior citizens, this bill aims to grant to senior citizens a lifetime validity for their Philippine passports. As provided for by Republic Ac

No. 10928, otherwise known as "Philippine Passport Act of 1996", regular passports shall be valid for a period of ten (10) years but for individuals under the age of eighteen, regular passports shall be valid for five (5) years<sup>2</sup>.

Through this bill the senior citizens will no longer be required to go over the gruesome process of continuously renewing their passports. This bill seeks to grant this privilege to our senior citizens in order to alleviate and to make the process of renewing their passports more convenient.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate approval of this bill is necessary.
